 - iii. a copy of the LSS Constitution and all By-Laws and Operational Policies relevant to the particular Election, or relevant parts thereof;
 - iv. the Nomination Form, which must be completed in full by the Candidate, and which must list the Candidate's full and common name; preferred Candidate name that shall be printed on the ballots; signature; primary phone number; lakeheadu.ca email address; and a designation for the position of candidacy;
 - v. the Candidate's Acknowledgement Form, which must be completed in full by the Candidate, and which must pledge compliance with and understanding of the rules of the Election; and
 - vi. include a signed Scrutineer form, which must have the name of the Candidate's designated Scrutineer.

8 Eligibility

- 8.1 All Candidates will be Active Members and shall properly complete and submit to the CRO and DRO the Nomination Package for the desired position by the deadline set out in the Nomination Package.
- 8.2 Current Directors who have or are about to complete one term in a Director position may stand for election of an Executive or Director position for another term.

- 8.3 Current Executives cannot be re-elected for an Executive position but are eligible to be elected as a Director.
- 8.4 Scrutineers must be an Active Member; however, a Scrutineer cannot be a current standing member of the BOD or be a Nominated Candidate for that election period.
- 8.5 Scrutineers must attend the mandatory meeting to tabulate the voting, the date for which will be provided by the CRO and DRO. A failure of the Scrutineer to be present will result in the disqualification of the candidate they are representing.
- 8.6 Scrutineers may only nominate one individual during an Election.

9 All Candidates Meeting ("ACM")

- 9.1 The ACM shall be held at the conclusion of the Nomination Period.
- 9.2 All Candidates must be present at the start and throughout the ACM, unless their absence is reasonable at the discretion of the CRO. The Candidate then must meet with the CRO or DRO at their earliest convenience to
- 9.3 A failure to inform either the CRO or DRO of a potential absence at the ACM will result in invalidation of the potential Candidate's nomination.
- 9.4 The CRO shall:
 - a) announce the potential Candidates who have attained candidacy;
 - b) present the timeline of the Election to all those in attendance; and
 - c) answer any questions from Candidates regarding the electoral process
- 9.5 If at the close of nomination period, there is only one candidate for any of the Director or Executive positions, an Affirmation Vote must be held for that position.
- 9.6 If there is no candidate for a position, the nomination period will be extended for an additional five (5) days immediately following the close of regular nominations exclusively for the position(s) that remain vacant for the purpose of receiving nomination packages.
- 9.7 A shortened campaigning period for the vacant position(s) will start after the extended five (5) days have run their course.
- 9.8 If no Nomination Package is received for the position needing to be filled after the extended nomination period has closed, the BOD shall hold a by-election once an individual expresses interest in the vacant position and presents a nomination package.

10 Withdrawal

- 10.1 A Candidate may withdraw at any time after nomination and prior to the opening of polls by delivering to the CRO notice of their decision to withdraw. Once the notice has been received by the CRO, the Candidate may not reverse their decision to withdraw.
- 10.2 If a Candidate withdraws, the CRO or DRO shall remove the Candidate's name from the poll.
- 10.3 If, after the withdrawal, there are no remaining Candidates for an Executive or Director position, the CRO shall call a By-Election for the position(s) in question.

11 Campaign Period

- 11.1 The Campaign Period will take place during the timeline as provided in the Nomination Package.
- 11.2 The CRO and DRO have the discretion to extend the Campaign Period if required.
- 11.3 All Campaign materials must be submitted and approved by the CRO or DRO and cannot be posted until they have been approved (by email response to the CRO or DRO).
- 11.4 Candidates are limited to a total of 75 regular sized (8.5" by 11") posters. Posters that are larger will be taken into consideration and their size will be calculated.
- 11.5 Each candidate is limited to $75.00 for the cost of campaigning materials. These monies should be from the candidate's own personal fund. Your scrutineer must hand in all receipts from campaign purchases before ballot counting (pictures of receipts emailed to CRO/DRO will be accepted). Items that a candidate already has in their possession will be calculated accordingly at the discretion of the CRO and DRO.
- 11.6 Campaigns must be conducted in a suitable manner, subject to the discretion of the CRO and DRO. Campaigning must not harm others, the LSS or Lakehead University's reputation or property.
- 11.7 No candidates may slander another candidate or be libelous to each other.
- 11.8 No campaign shall run jointly where two or more candidates run for office as a team.
- 11.9 The Lakehead University or LSS logos, Lakehead University Staff, and members of the BOD are not to be used on any campaign materials (ex. posters, social - media, email, t- shirts). Using these implies that Lakehead University and/or the LSS are endorsing your campaign.

- 11.10 Candidates may use any platform of campaigning, including but not limited to, email, social media, clothing, posters, and class talks. All campaign materials must fall in line with By-Law #1. If a candidate is unsure of a campaigning method, they may ask the CRO and DRO for guidance.
- 11.11 Any rule violations will be counted as a "strike". If a candidate has three "strikes" they will be disqualified.
- 11.12 Any student and staff member are free to inform the CRO or DRO of any complaints and concerns they have with any Candidate. All complaints and concerns will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis by the CRO and DRO. The CRO and DRO will be making all decisions together.

12 Voting Period

- 12.1 The Campaign Period will take place during the timeline as provided in the Nomination Package. The CRO and DRO have the discretion to extend the Campaign Period if required.
- 12.2 All voting shall be executed using an electronic voting system (ex. Google Forms), which shall be administered to Active Members by email.
- 12.3 The CRO and DRO must ensure the privacy, anonymity, and confidentiality of every vote cast.
- 12.4 The CRO and DRO must prevent voter and election tampering and must be able to certify the results of every poll at the request of the BOD.
- 12.5 The voting poll must be accessible to all Active Members, including students with disabilities.
- 12.6 Each ballot shall state the name and position for which the Election is being held for, along with the following:
 - a) each Candidate's name who is running for the position;
 - b) an option to abstain; and
 - c) an option to reopen nominations, implying a vote of no confidence in the Candidates listed.
- 12.7 The CRO or DRO will send an email to all Active Members at the start of the Voting Period, providing a link to the electronic voting system and a formal announcement declaring the start of the voting period.

13 Electronic Tabulation

- 13.1 Electronic Tabulation will occur when the delegated Scrutineers meet with the CRO and DRO, either in person or by Zoom, to tabulate the voting. Scrutineers shall attend this tabulation, or else their represented Candidate will be disqualified from the Election.
- 13.2 The results for Elections will be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast by eligible voters.
- 13.3 In the event of a tie in an Election it is under the discretion of the CRO and DRO on how to proceed.
- 13.4 In the event a Candidate declines their elected position within five (5) business days of their successful candidacy, the Candidate with the second-most votes for the position in question shall be certified as the Candidate-elect by the CRO.

14 Election Quorum

14.1 Quorum for all Elections and applicable By-elections shall be ten percent (10%) of all Active Members. A failure to not meet the quorum will deem the election invalid.

15 By-Elections

- 15.1 By-elections shall occur only when there is a vacancy on the Executive Committee, the minimum number of seats on the BOD has not been filled, a position is not filled during the Nomination Period, or a Re-vote has failed to be ratified.
- 15.2 The process of By-elections is further explained under By-Law #3.

16 Results of Elections and By-Elections

16.1 Once the Electronic Tabulations have concluded, and any applicable disputes are resolved, the CRO shall prepare and deliver the results of the election to the BOD, and then the rest of the Active Members.

17 Re-vote
